RICHMOND, VA. April 23, 2021 — The editorial staff of Virginia Living magazine is pleased to name Mountain View Christian Academy to its 2021 list of Top Schools and Universities.

“Mountain View Christian Academy exemplifies the high standards, innovative curriculum, exemplary staff, and wide-ranging opportunities afforded by Virginia’s academic institutions,” says Mindy Kinsey, editor. “We are proud to recognize this school as a model of top-notch education and student success.”

A super section included in Virginia Living’s March/April 2021 issue, State of Education celebrates excellence and innovation at all levels of learning in the Commonwealth. Featuring in-depth and positive coverage of statewide news and trends in schooling, teaching, and extracurriculars, Virginia Living’s State of Education also includes Top Schools and Universities 2021, a list of nearly 200 four-year colleges and graduate schools; private high, K-12, and K-8 schools; public high schools; and special needs schools that are leading the way in education around the state.

The magazine’s editorial staff thoroughly reviews each institution’s curriculums and accomplishments, selecting schools that have implemented programs or begun capital improvements aimed at strengthening students’ experience in the classroom and in their communities. Virginia Living’s Top Schools and Universities 2021 is the resource for anyone interested in why Virginia’s schools are consistently ranked among the nation’s best.

Virginia Living’s State of Education will be available online at VirginiaLiving.com in May.
